MARTIN BÉCARD His Story

With a degree in communication and having cut his teeth in Paris in the field of music (especially in charge of communication for the Orchestre des Concerts Lamoureux), Martin Bécard was able to satisfy his taste for adventure by undertaking in Madagascar.

Notably the creator of a cultural venue hosting exhibitions, screenings, concerts, shows and other DJ evenings, he has become a key player in event, culture and communication in the "Red Island".

Forced to rethink his professional future following a coup d'etat, he moved to Rabat in 2010 where he supported the development of several advertising agencies before taking over the management of projects in the event agency NEO, with whom he conceptualized and produced major cultural, institutional or private events in Morocco and internationally.

Then started the MC - Martin Consulting adventure, which opens the way to collaborations on different scales with exciting and passionate production and project management missions.
